

Mobile Phone Procedure FAQs

1. Are mobile phones allowed to be used at recess and lunch? No, students will not be permitted to access their phones during these times.
2. How will students pay at the canteen and office? Students will need to bring cash or an EFTPOS card.
3. Can students have their mobile phones in their bag? Yes, students can have their mobile phones in their bag but they will need to be turned off and out of sight.
4. What if a parent needs to urgently contact their child? Emergency contact can be made by the school office.
5. What happens with mobile phones during sport and on excursions? Mobile phones are not to be used during sport or on excursions.
6. How can an employer contact students about work shifts? Students should alert their employers about the school's mobile phone strategy and advise that they may not see any messages the employer sends until after school. Alternative methods of contacts such as email could also be used.
7. Can students access their phones during private study or minimally supervised periods? Students will not be permitted to access their phones during these times.
8. What if my child needs to use their phone for classwork? Students will not be using their phone for classwork. The school has access to a range of other digital devices that are more suitable and conducive to student learning.
9. What happens if my child is in sick bay and the school has arranged a parent to pick them up? Students in sick bay are constantly monitored and communicated with.
10. What if a student needs to contact home in the event of an emergency? Students can present to the front office and contact home.